

USBC Regains Full NYSE American Compliance

March 31, 2026

RENO, NV, March 31, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- USBC, Inc. (NYSE American: USBC) ("USBC" or the "Company"), a publicly traded technology company that seeks to enable the transformation of traditional U.S. bank dollars into secure, compliant tokenized deposits, today announced that the NYSE American LLC ("NYSE American") has notified the Company that it is back in full compliance with all of the NYSE American continued listing standards effective March 27, 2026.

"Regaining full NYSE compliance reflects USBC's commitment to financial discipline as we move toward the future launch of the tokenized deposit offering," said Greg Kidd, Chairman and CEO of USBC, Inc. "We appreciate the Exchange's support throughout this process and remain focused on executing our strategy and delivering long-term value to our stockholders."

The capital infusion to bring the Company back into compliance was provided by the successful closing of the August 2025 acquisition of a controlling interest in the Company by Goldeneye 1995 LLC, an affiliate of Chairman and CEO Greg Kidd.

The Company will continue to be subject to NYSE American's continued listing standards and monitoring. The compliance indicator ("BC") will no longer be disseminated, and the Company will no longer be included in the list of NYSE American noncompliant issuers on the Exchange's website.
